"OLD MACDONALD HAD A FARM"

On the evening of Saturday 11th of June, 2011, Alan MacDonald, the President of Clan Donald Canterbury, hosted a great dinner party at his Merivale residence. The theme for the party was "Old MacDonald had a Farm!"

Clan Members as requested came dressed in "down on the farm" clothes or as a favourite farm animal. There were kiwi farmers, a stock agent, Scottish farmers and crofters and one came as a Friesian cow and another as a chicken.

Clan Donald transport for the evening was an old 1944 McCormick Deering W4 tractor. Alan and Colin MacDonald demonstrated the tractor that was parked at the front entrance to the house, which aroused the neighbours. The tractor was then put to bed in the garage.

The numerous guests then enjoyed a great dinner of good country fare accompanied by wine, beer and great company.
